

UNIVERSITY OF GOTHENBURG
GOTHENBURG UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

Open Access and the Changing Role of Libraries

Monday 9 August, 2010

Place: School of Business, Economics and Law, Gothenburg University,
SEB Conference Room, Vasagatan 1

Program

09.00 Registration and coffee

Moderator: Inge-Bert Täljedal, Former Vice-chancellor of Umeå University and former chairman of the OpenAccess.se steering committee

09.30 Welcome addresses: Gunnar Sahlin, National Librarian of Sweden,
Reinhard Altenhöner, Chair of the IFLA IT-section, Deutsche Nationalbibliothek

09.40 Ellen Tise, IFLA President 2009-2011 and Senior Director, Library and Information Services, Stellenbosch University, South Africa
Open Access – a New Paradigm for Libraries and a New Role for Librarians

Library cooperation in supporting Open Access, national and international initiatives

10.10 Norbert Lossau, Director of Göttingen State and University Library (SUB Göttingen)

Confederation of Open Access Repositories (COAR): a truly international effort to build a worldwide repository network

10.35 Irina Kuchma, eIFL-Open Access program manager

Libraries in the evolving scholarly communication environment: case studies from eIFL network

11.00 Short break

11.05 Anja Oberlaender, coordinator of the information platform open-access.net at the Library of the University of Konstanz

German repository activities

11.30 Izumi Sugita, Library Liaison Team Leader, Scholarly and Academic Information Division, Cyber Science Infrastructure Development Department, National Institute of Informatics, JAPAN

OA as a driving force to make library services more patron centered:
The projected future of Japanese library landscape

11.55 Jan Hagerlid, National Library of Sweden, OpenAccess.se program

Open Access aligns stakeholders from academia and research libraries – some experiences from Sweden

Lunch 12.15 - 13.15

Served at the School of Business, Economics and Law

Open Access and new roles for research libraries and librarians
--

13.10 Leslie Chan, Senior Lecturer in the Department of Social Sciences at the University of Toronto Scarborough, Director of Bioline International

Transforming Global Knowledge Exchange: Libraries and Open Access

13.40 Lars Björnshauge, Director of Libraries at Lund University, Sweden

A long and winding road – promoting Open Access at a very large and research-intensive university

14.05 Saskia Franken, Managing Director Igitur, Utrecht Publishing & Archiving Services

Utrecht University Library as Open Access publisher: the Igitur experience

14.30 Tom Cochrane, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Technology, Information and Learning Support) at Queensland University of Technology (QUT)

Open Access – The Advantage for the Library in the University of a Successful Open Access Policy

15.00 Coffee break

Open Access and Open Source; metadata, catalogues and software

15.25 Petra Hauke, assistant lecturer at the Berlin School of Library and Information Science at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin and Jana Rumler student at the same school.

Are library catalogues open for Open Access to free available online resources? LIS students checking library catalogues for user comfort

15. 50 Jens Vigen, CERN Head Librarian

Catalogue once - Open the catalogues

16. 15 Anders Söderbäck, National Library of Sweden, LIBRIS unit

Why Open Access to Bibliographic Metadata Matters, for Libraries and for the World.

16.35 Edmund Balnaves, Information Officer, IT Section IFLA

Critical issues in Open Source repository software and its contribution to Open Access

17.00 End of Meeting