VÄLKOMMEN TILL
”MÖTESPLATS OPEN ACCESS 2015”

GUNILLA LILIE BAUER
CHEF FÖR BIBLIOTEK OCH IT
MALMÖ CITY, SOME FACTS

- Sweden’s third biggest city with a population of around 300,001,170 nationalities
- Average age group of Malmö citizens is 36 years. In Sweden as a whole it is 41 years
- From a traditional industry city, to entrepreneurship and a skilled workforce
- Linked with Copenhagen and the rest of Europe via the Öresund Bridge
- In the population group 25-64 years, 46% of Malmö residents have a higher education. The overall proportion for Sweden is 40%.
THIS IS Malmö University

- Founded 1998
- 24,000 students
- 1,500 employees
- Five multidisciplinary faculties
  - Faculty of Technology and Society
  - Faculty of Culture and Society
  - Faculty of Health and Society
  - Faculty of Odontology
  - Faculty of Education and Society
- Offers 100 programmes and 500 single courses
- 20 programmes taught in English
STUDENTS

- 24 000 students
- 2/3 of Malmö University’s students are female
- 1/3 of Malmö University’s students have a foreign background
- Are often from a home without higher educational traditions
- Are after graduation assigned or employed within their field of studies
RESEARCH

• Approximately 80 professors

• Approximately 200 research students

• Research that makes a difference…

• Our ambition is for the University’s research to contribute to the development of a sustainable society.

• It is important that our research is well established in the surrounding society.
"3. Malmö högskolas utbildning och forskning ska bedrivas i samverkan med andra aktörer för att gemensamt identifiera frågeställningar och bidra till hållbara lösningar"

"…"

- ”Malmö högskola ska öppet dela resultat och kunskap för att bidra till en fördjupad förståelse för människors villkor och samhällets utveckling”