Opportunities in Open Science
Kungliga biblioteket 19 januari 2017
Location: Hörsalen Humlegården Moderator: Karin Aase, Vinnova

PROGRAM

9.15–10.00  COFFEE

10.00–10.15  Welcoming address
Gunilla Herdenberg, National Librarian, National Library of Sweden
Sven Stafström, Director General, Swedish Research Council

10.15–11.00  Opening address
Jean Claude Burgelman, Head of Unit, Directorate General for Research and Innovation of the European Commission.
Presently Head of Unit Data, Open Access and Foresight and Chair of DG RTD Taskforce on Open Science. As Head of Unit, he is responsible for open science and data policies as well as foresight for research priorities.

11.00–11.30  National coordination of Open Access to scientific information (publications and research data)
Sofie Björling, Director of Department of Research Infrastructures Swedish Research Council
Beate Eellend, Open Access Coordinator, National Library of Sweden

11.30–11.45  Open Science in Sweden
Karin Röding, State Secretary to the Minister for Higher Education and Research

11.45–12.45  LUNCH AND MINGLE
12.45–14.00  Horizon2020 Open Access Mandate on publications and research data. How OpenAIRE can help – infrastructure and support

Birgit Schmidt, Scientific Manager OpenAIRE, Goettingen State and University Library

14.00-14.30  Open Science: Good practices on co-operation and Open Science

Sara Hägg, Associate Professor, Karolinska institutet
Dick Kasperowski, Senior Lecturer, Göteborgs universitet
Björn Nystedt, Head of Facility, SciLifeLab
Lukas Smas, Senior Research Fellow, Nordregio

14.30-14.45  SHORT BREAK

14.45–15.15  Concluding dialogue: What does Open Science mean for Sweden?

Jens Hjerling-Leffler, Associate Professor, Young Academy of Sweden
Eva-Marie Rigné, Research and Development Officer, Swedish Association of Local Authorities and Regions, SKL
Jan-Eric Sundgren, Senior Adviser, Association of Swedish Engineering Industries
Annelies Wilder-Smith, Professor, Norrlands universitetssjukhus, Umeå universitet

15.15–16.30  SNACKS AND MINGLE

WIFI: eduroam
        KB-Wifi-Free
TWITTER: #openscience_SWE
         #openscience
         #H2020
         #openaire